Jesus rose from the dead and is still alive. This is a key part of the Good News. His death paid for the penalty for our sins. His resurrection proves His sacrifice worked and WE have a blessed hope.

2. Read I Cor. 15:1-8. Who in that list most surprises you? Who in that list would you like to spend some time walking with?
3. Read Luke 24:13-35. What is the part that excites you the most of this story?
4. Read Psalm 139:17-18. What are your thoughts about God's thoughts about you?
5. Read Micah 6:8. What can you do to walk with God based on this verse?
6. Do: Encounters With Jesus. Do you desire to encounter Jesus? When we “encounter” something, we are coming face-to-face with it. It's our hope that over these next five days, we'll notice our hearts burning within us like the Emmaus Road travelers (Luke 24:32) as we also walk with Jesus.
